

DESCRIPTION

With the PSP 43-524 First Aid Fire Blanket 120x180cm, made of glass fibre, it is easy to nip a fire in the bud, especially if there is no fire extinguisher nearby or if this method is too rigorous. The fire blanket can be used in a company or office, as well as at home. A fire blanket is an inexpensive, safe and maintenance-free extinguisher. The fire blankets can be used up to 500 degrees Celsius. The fire blankets comply with the guidelines of the Ministry of Health, Welfare and Sport. Wherever fire is handled professionally, a fire blanket is indispensable.

CHARACTERISTICS

- ▲ Single use
